Apologies for absence –Cllrs. Webber, Kimberley.

RESOLVED the apologies were accepted.

DECLARATIONS OF PERSONAL OR PREJUDICIAL INTEREST

The Chair invited declarations of which there were NONE.

MARKET BUILDING

Cllr. Hand – Davis commented on an increase in antisocial behaviour around and in the building and pigeon nuisance.

Cllr. Unsworth agreed to raise the antisocial behaviour aspect at the next PACT meeting

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS 2016

Chris Bradbury reported that he had received a quotation from a lighting company for the provision, hire, installation and removal of the light/decorations based on a three year plan. This gave a provisional figure of cost implications.

Cllr. Mrs. Rusby stated that this was the way forward and that the Town Council cannot keep relying on the Round Table and Community Centre staff to erect/ remove the lights etc. on health and safety grounds.

Mr. Bradbury was to obtain two more quotes and table them at the next meeting

PROVISION OF THE DEFIBRILLATORS

The Town Clerk stated that the Town Council had been successful in obtaining grant funding from the Ward Alliance for two defibrillators.

These were to be erected at Millhouse Institute and St. Johns Community Centre.

PUBLIC TOILETS

Town Mayor stated he had tried to contact Cllr. Marsh regarding the status of the toilets by phone.

Members present agreed that a letter from the Town Mayor be sent to Cllr. Marsh stating that the project needs to be completed in the very near future by local contractors by means of the tendering process
