REPORTS

Paramount Cinema

Staffing: 2 members of staff were leaving

Programme. Good films have been booked for the summer period and the live acts are selling well.

First Aid training was to be investigated.

Cllr. Cutts asked if the steps outside the entrance were any nearer to being more user friendly.

Quotes were still being awaited for this work to be carried out

Paramount Business Plan to progress the lease:

Lease:

A meeting had been held with a consultant with expertise in formulating a business plan which was required for the lease to progress. The consultant had studied the various options in this field and had returned the costs and fees incurred accordingly.

Following a brief discussion it was recommended that the preparation and costs of the plan to the sum of £6,000.00 be accepted subject to agreement by all members.

The Town Clerk to contact the absent members accordingly.

Clerks Note 13 members agreed unanimously 2 did not reply.

It was suggested that the building be listed as a community asset.

Signed.....Mayor 18/09/17
